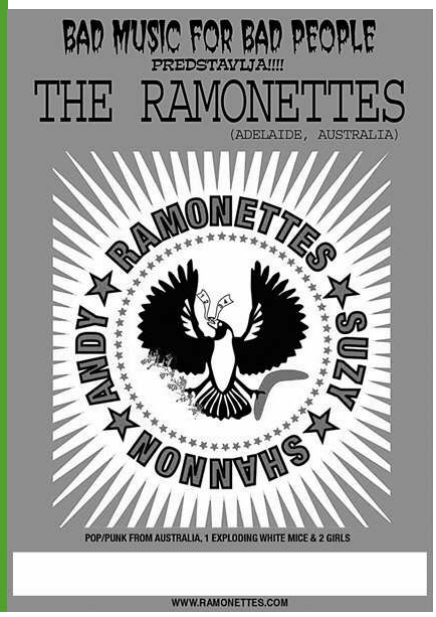
INTERVIEWS



RAMONETTES

Thank Suzy for very good answers!Interview by Stole

1.How are you Suzy?

I'm very well, thank you. 2004 was a fantastic year for me and the Ramonettes. We recorded an EP, toured Europe and former Yugoslavia, did some great gigs and met lots of lovely people, played in Brisbane at the fifth annual Ramone-a-thon with other like-minded bands, made it to number 2 in our local radio station chart, our video clip was played on Rage on TV and we generally had a great time.

2.Merry Cristmas and happy new year 2005!

Thank you. Same to you. I'm looking forward to another great year in 2005.

3.Who is give you idea for name Remonettes?

I thought it up myself. It seemed like a good way to convey that we are a band that plays Ramones songs but we're not really the Ramones. We play Ronettes songs but we're not Ronettes. Leatherette is like leather but it's not. 'ette' can mean smaller like kitchenette and cigarette or similar/imitation like leatherette or feminine like usherette. We are a band with girls in it. We imitate our heroes but we are not them. We are smaller - a three-piece; Ramones were four.

4.Do you is Ramones your idols,legend or the best band?

To me, Ramones are my idols, legends and the best band ever. As soon as I heard them, even before that, as soon as I read about them in the NME, I knew they were the perfect band for me. I loved them so much I changed my last name to Ramone in 1979. My first name was already Susan so it was easy to become Suzy, after the song 'Suzy is a Headbanger'.

5.Why Ramones Punk Rock`n`roll sound?Do you for you PunkRock--Agressive Rock`n`roll???

No, I don't usually like aggressive punk. The thing that sets the Ramones apart is that while they stripped music back to the basics, they included elements from other preceding music forms to make it fun. They're funny, dumb and romantic, not tough and aggressive. They included influences from rock'n'roll and girl groups and the Beach Boys and really it's pop but with the best rhythms, dynamic arrangements and only the essential instrumentation – bass, guitar and drums with a vocalist. I prefer the earlier records to the later ones.

6.Your opinion about Sex,Drugs,Rock`nroll,Anarchy,Ramones,Punk.....?

It's all my brain and body need. It's very good indeed. I find it pretty amazing that everywhere we go, Ramones fans seem to have very similar attitudes to these things – we're anti-authority, not driven by a strong work ethic, materialism or commercialism. Ramones fans are generous, sharing people and not usually competitive. Sex and drugs are fun but I don't like heroin or speed. It's pretty obvious why heroin is bad, the fact that it killed Dee Dee is proof of that and I believe speed makes people aggressive and unpleasant. Sex, drugs, rock'n'roll and punk are things which lift people out of their ordinary consciousness onto another plane. If you're lucky, a state of ecstasy or bliss is reached. We all love that high. Anarchy is about co-operative order and freedom whereas governments impose restrictions and oppression and encourage fear in the population. Governments seem concerned with staying in power rather than making the world a better and safer place for the people. I wish humankind would mature and end all war, destroy all weapons, share the resources and take better care of the environment. Democracy seems to be failing us. Corporations are gaining power and most don't have the ethics of ordinary people. I don't believe many individual people would want to mess around with the perfection of nature and splice genes and cover the Earth with poison, plastics and pollution, whereas corporations do this all the time. I do what I can to live well and have a positive influence and if I feel despair about what's going on, music is my saviour. My life was saved by Rock'n'Roll. I listened to the radio from a very young age and tuned in to the stations playing the best music. ("Do you remember lying in bed, with the covers pulled up over your head, radio playing so no-one could see?" – that's what I used to do – listen to my sister's radio under my pillow at night, so she couldn't see that I'd borrowed it.) Listening to music made me feel happy, educated me, exposed me to lots of ideas, inspired me to follow my own path and kept me sane in a very conservative home, family and town. Punk happened at just the right time for me. I was in high school and needing an outlet for rebellious feelings and teenage angst. Punk was perfect. Ramones, Sex Pistols and The Clash said everything that needed to be said and the music was so energetic and dynamic. My friends and I took records to school and played them loud to the other kids in the school hall at lunch times. We read rock magazines. I started going to concerts at the age of 14. I've seen some great ones. When I was little I wanted to climb into the radio. I tried from the age of 15 to get a job in radio and finally succeeded when I was 27. In the meantime, I did my own shows as a volunteer on local radio and community radio. I always had friends who were musicians and hung around bands and recording sessions and was a sound engineer for a while but it wasn't until I met Andrew that I learned to play guitar and sing. We formed Ramonettes with Shannon and life's been getting better and better ever since. I encourage everyone who enjoys music to get an instrument, learn how to play and form a band. It's never too late and it's really worth it. It's also a lot of fun to make your own films and do your own radio show. Creating is more satisfying than consuming.

7.Record?First album?Yes?How is the calling first album?

The first Ramones album is called 'Ramones'. The first Ramonettes CD is called 'Ramonettes'.
We had an earlier demo EP called 'Ramonettes at your Beach Party' and the idea for that came from a Ramones bootleg called 'At your Birthday Party'. Here in Australia, our CD has been labelled 'www.ramonettes.com' accidentally in a radio station but we don't mind because when people see it in the charts, they see the address of our website and can find out more about us.

8.Tell me about cooperation with Aleksandar Delibasic and tour in Serbia?

We love Aleks. We found out about him through ex-Yugoslavian friends in Adelaide, Australia. We contacted him over the internet. He was always reliable about answering emails and giving us details of what he had arranged. He was really helpful in setting up gigs for us in former Yugoslavia, which made it possible for us to work out other dates and do our European tour. He came with us on tour for two weeks and was a lot of fun. He has great musical taste and a good sense of humour. He took us to many places we would never have seen otherwise. He found really interesting places for us to play. Some of those places had not had an international rock'n'roll band play there before. He organised lots of interviews with TV, radio and fanzines while we were there. He made sure the posters were put up in the towns we were going to. He looked after us.

9.How yourself like concert in Konak in S.Palanka,Serbia?

We enjoyed playing that concert. It was our first international gig and it was in Alek's home town. It was fun. We were a bit worried the tables pushed together to make the stage might come apart. I stood with one leg on one table and one on another and tried to keep balanced while doing the Johnny Ramone stance. The audience seemed to really appreciate what we were doing and everyone had a great night. We found it amusing that one of the other bands used a mop as a cymbal stand.

10.Do you join in concert?

I'm sorry. I don't understand the question.

11.Who is do best your concert in your career?

The first Ramones concert I saw in Australia in 1979 was very exciting. I joined in the mosh-pit and had an ecstatic time, singing along and chanting and moshing with all the other fans, not caring if I got crushed because we were all having such a great time, sharing the joy and trusting each other in a surging crowd. Since then, I've been to hundreds of concerts, too many to remember. The best concerts I saw in 2004 were The Flaming Lips at the Big Day Out in Adelaide and Patti Smith in Milan, Italy. The best band we played with on tour were NS Pistols in Novi Sad. They did a Sex Pistols tribute and it was wonderful. They are made up of members of DMT.

12.What you work in your life except Ramonettes?

I do lots of different work, some paid and some unpaid. I work as a radio producer at the ABC. I also have a radio show with our drummer Andrew, called 'Late for Breakfast' on Three D Radio, which we do as volunteers. We play music we love and talk about issues and entertainment and films. We also review films for radio and a music magazine here called 'dB'. Sometimes we do interviews with musicians and film-makers and then write articles about them.

13.Do you marred, or not do you wish?

I am not married. I don't believe marriage is a happy arrangement. I tried it and didn't like it. Thanks for the offer, anyway!

14.What you more listen from music?

I listen to music all the time. It's what keeps me sane and happy and amused. If I have to do something I don't like, like housework, I'll put on music and then it's OK. There are many things I listen for in music. I listen intently to small details, like the rhythm or the arrangement. I listen to the words or the harmony vocals. I sing along. I listen to all sorts of music except funk, opera and jazz. I prefer music that has hooks and choruses. I like pop music, punk, country, sixties, garage, indie/alternative. As well as Ramones and Ronettes (and other girl-groups and records produced by Phil Spector), I love the Clash, the Sex Pistols, REM, Neil Young, Patti Smith, Dan Bern, Bjork, The Queers, Spazzys, Mach Pelican, Blondie, Beatles, Kinks, Monkees, Herman's Hermits, Sonic Youth, Teenage Fanclub, Jesus & Mary Chain, Black Rebel Motorcycle Club, Flaming Lips, Smiths, Iggy Pop, Bob Dylan, Gillian Welch, Lucinda Williams, Dusty Springfield, Johnny Cash, Nick Cave, Velvet Underground, Dandy Warhols, Jonathan Richman, T Rex, Beach Boys, Ed Keupper, Tex Perkins, Sinead O'Connor, Elvis Costello, The Easybeats, Violent Femmes .... and many, many more as well as thousands of individual songs. I really hate Led Zep, Eric Clapton and Barry Manilow.

15.I wish you all the best!Ramonettes forever!!!!!

Thank you and we wish you all the best forever too.

Discipline

Thanks for answers Joost from the band DISCIPLINE!!!!Interview by Stole

>1.OI! How are you?

I'm fine thanx. Best wishes for 2005!

>2.What is new with the band Discipline?

At the moment we are working hard to finish writing all the songs for our new upcoming full-length album "Downfall of the Working Man". We will record it in february 2005 and it will be released on may 9th 2005. Some titles are "Downfall of the Working Man", "Boys will be Boys", "Road to Freedom" and "Red&White Army'. We're also booking many shows for 2005. So far we've shows booked for Holland, Germany, England, Spain, Finland, Russia, USA, Italy.

>3.Who is every make Discipline band?

The line-up has been for the last 7 years:
Joost de Graaf - Vocals
Erik Wouters - Guitar
Carlo Geerlings - Bass
Joost Strijbos - Drums

We also have a 2nd guitarplayer who joins us on our tours. His name is Berry Black.

>4.In the band Discipline all skinheads?

No, our drummer is not a skinhead and our 2nd guitarplayer is also not a skinhead but a punkrocker.

>5.Band Discipline is possible first band that played
>OI!/Core,Skin/Core,do you have the band who played OI/Skin-Core?

I don't know whether we were the 1st band to play this kind of music. But yes, our music is a mix of Oi, Punk, Hardcore and R'n R. We like to call it Street Rock ourselves. `Bands like Agnostic Front, Cockney Rejects, Rose Tattoo, Slapshot, Cock Sparrer and Motorhead have been very imnportant for our sound.

>6.Do you played with the band AGNOSTIC FRONT?That thyself know for >coming in Belgrade 28.martch 2005?

No. They offered us to do this 2005 tour with them but unfortunately we had to say no since we are in the studio recording our new album during that tour. But we've done several tours with AF in the past. We did 3 european tours and 1 US-tour with them in the past.

>7.Your opinion about racism,fascism,anarchy,stright edge,drugs....?

Discipline does not support rascism or fascism because we're definitely not a rightwing band. Everybody is welcome at our shows as long as they have respect for the other people coming to the show.
Anarchy is a typical punk-topic but personally I can't do much with it. It's an utopia that there will ever be anarchy. No movement in the world is so strong that they can drive an entire country into anarchy.
I have nothing with straight edge. I have respect for people who don't drink, smoke or eat meat because of their personal beliefs but It's just not my way of living.
We don't do drugs. Drugs can ruin lives and if you want to play with your life go ahead.

>8.Do you like football,beer,R`n`R and Girl???

Yes I like football (PSV EINDHOVEN), I like to drink a beer in the weekend, I love the music and I love beautiful girls!

>9.Somethings about your concerts?Do you have fighting on your >gig?Somethings about OI! HARD CORE scene in Holland?

We rarely have any trouble at our shows nowadays. We used to have a lot of violence at our gigs in the past. That was a real problem since it became very hard for us to get shows. Luckily the people listened when we told them we don't want violence at our gigs and the air cleared.
The scene in Holland nowadays is very good. There are plenty of places where bands can play and there are many good bands like Backfire, Badlands (rip), Banner of Thugs, Payback, The Butcher, Tech 9, Second Chance, Knockdown (rip) and Razorblade to keep the scene alive.

>10.Who is the crew Discipline?Skinheads,punx,Hard Core...???

When we play a show our crowd consists of Skins, HC kids, Hooligans, Punks, Rockers and sometimes even bikers show up.

>11.Do you know an Serbian OI! band?

No, unfortunately I don't know any serbian Oi bands.

>12.Do you have problem with police man?How your state present Skinheads >movement?In my country is catastrophe,Skinheads is the >violence,satan`s.....Your opinion??????

We have much trouble with the police but that's mainly with football matches. The skinhead-movement in Holland is not as big anymore as years ago and definitely not as big as in other countries like Germany. But there is a whole new breed of skins standing up nowadays.

>13.Do you believe in God,Christians???

I'm totally not religious and I don't belive in a certain god. I do think that there is a greater power somewhere but I haven't figured it out for myself yet.

>14.What you listen from music and who bands?

I listen to a lot of different bands like AF, Cock Sparrer, Vanilla Muffins, Slade, The Crack, Cro Mags, The Last resort, 4 Skins, Troopers, Motorhead, Rose Tattoo, Blood for Blood, Ramones, Misfits, The Bruisers, Madball.

Last albums I bought were:
- Troopers - Mein Kopf, dein Henker
- Vanilla Muffins - Best Of
- AF - Another Voice
- Blue Bloods - Death of a Salesman
- Razorblade

>15.Who write text in band and who music?

I write all the lyrics and most of the music. Most of the times I go to rehearsal with a song I wrote at home. We change some things and add some details and the song is finished.

>16.Who is price your coming played in Serbia?

I really don't know but if there are people interested in doing a Discipline show in Serbia please contact our agency MAD-tourbooking at marc@mad-tourbooking.de

We would love to come and play a show in Serbia!

>17.Thanks For interview Discipline,Cheers,All the best in the >FUTURE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Thanx for the interview and good luck with the zine. I would like to thank all the people in Serbia for their loyal support. Make sure to check out our upcoming new album "Downfall of the Working Man" and we hope to play in Serbia soon. Cheers
